

WILIUG SPRING MEETING

Wisconsin/Illinois IUG

(Pronounced "Willy Ugh")

Tuesday, May 18, 2004

8:30 am - 3:00 pm

Carroll College, Waukesha, Wisconsin - Campus Center

The Campus Center is located on the corner of S. East Avenue and E. College Avenue.

Directions to the Carroll College: http://www2.cc.edu/Visitors/visitors_directions.html

Directions to the Campus Center and Parking Lots: <http://www2.cc.edu/prospective/virtualltour.html>. If possible, park in the lot off Wright Street or in the lot between N. East Avenue and Barstow Street.

Please register for either the morning meeting or the full day (with lunch) by May 7, 2004.

Contact Allison Reeves (areeves@xmail.cc.edu) or 262-524-7180.

PURPOSE: To share experiences from the recent IUG conference and to move forward as a new regional user group.

AGENDA:

- 8:30 a.m. Registration & Coffee
- 9:00 a.m. Welcome & Recap of the 12th Annual National IUG Conference
✓ Informal summaries & highlights of the national IUG held in April 2004.
- 10:00 a.m. Next Release Update, WebBridge & MetaFind Demonstration
✓ Diane Lewin, regional representative for Innovative Interfaces, Inc., will outline new features coming in 2004 with Millennium Silver. She will also demo two Innovative products, WebBridge and MetaFind.
- 11:15 a.m. Tour of Carroll College Library
- 11:45 a.m. Lunch
- 1:00 p.m. Concurrent Meetings
- 2005 Program Planning Meeting
✓ This meeting is open to anyone interested in helping to plan our first formal program scheduled for late Spring 2005.
- Open Discussion
✓ This meeting is open to anyone wanting to meet with colleagues for an informal discussion of how your library is implementing its Millennium modules, and to address other Innovative issues.
- 3:00 p.m. End of Meeting